And so Waggoner was sold as a slave for life, for $700 to pay his kidnappers the two or three bundred, and the balance will go into the State treasury.

The Gazette, of the 5th inst., gives the proceeding. Waggoner was brought before the Mayor on a writ of habeas corpus, and his discharge demanded by his attorney. But the very honorable Mayor refused to discharge him, and ordered him back to jail. We give the conclusion in the Gazette's language.

"Hardly had he reached it, when he was hastened into a buggy and driven off to Alexandria to the auction block. An injunction, however, which had been sucd out, was immediately dispatched, but the party having the negro in charge, were a few minutes ahead. As the party neared Alexandria, Col. Mr. Bernan, one of the delegates from Virginia to the Chicago Convention, was arrested in Alexandria, on Thursday last, and sent to prison. Democracy cannot endure free speech or a free press in a land of slaves, and to allow a citizen to attend a Republican Convention might encourage others to vote the ticket nominated by that Convention. And if this were permitted the days of Democracy and "bleached niggers" would be at an end. So Mr. Bernan must be punished for his treason, and as an example to all others in like sort offending. But, as there is no law yet even Virginia to punish a citizen for attending a Republican Convention out of that State, the Democracy could only operate through the mob, or find some other pretext.
